

Role Description: Location Pastor

NEXT LEVEL CHURCH
LOVING. RELEVANT. LIFE-GIVING.

At Next Level Church, we come from a wide range of personal and professional backgrounds—many of us never worked for a church until we found our calling here. But we all believe we're called to lead in a church that is loving, relevant, and life-giving, and we believe we're infinitely better together than we are apart. Are you ready to be part of the incredible things God's doing here?

NLC is one church in multiple locations. We embrace leadership and that starts with our Location Pastors. We are looking for catalytic leaders who can build teams and identify high-capacity leaders to build even more teams. These leaders are the most crucial carriers of the Next Level DNA and work endlessly see people discover God and grow into fully devoted followers of Jesus. The Location Pastor is responsible for the overall direction of the location and its team members and its alignment with the vision of NLC.

YOU ARE:

- A leader of leaders, who can develop people and build teams that build teams
- Someone who embodies authenticity and integrity and supports the vision of NLC wholeheartedly
- A people gatherer who loves to both work hard and have fun
- An individual who can motivate others to action one-on-one and in front of crowds
- A "surrendered type A" who is driven and self-motivated, but also teachable and eager to be developed
- A detail-oriented, self-motivated, people person who can follow organizational goals and personally sets goals to grow their locations and themselves

YOU WILL:

- Passionately model and support the values of Next Level Church
- Care for and pastor the people of the location
- Partner with NLC's Central Leadership to execute the vision and support the culture of NLC
- Constantly strive to improve and grow the location in every area

THE CHERRY ON TOP:

- Strong familiarity with the model and values of NLC or other similar multisite churches
- Previous experience as a pastor, counselor, or leader of a growing organization
